

Divine Mercy Novena 2018 in St. Norbert Church

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday and goes until Divine Mercy Saturday. You can join thousands of people in praying the novena this year! Each day has a new petition that seeks God's mercy for different purposes.

Will you join us for the Divine Mercy Novena beginning this Good Friday after 5.00 PM service through April 8 after every Mass?

Happy Easter 2018!

Fr. Gigi Philip

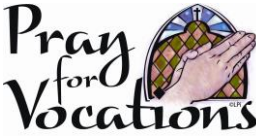

Nel giorno di Pasqua risuona un'unica acclamazione al Risorto. La prima lettura ci presenta il nucleo dell'annuncio cristiano da parte dei testimoni oculari della vita, morte e risurrezione di Gesù Cristo. Con un termine tecnico questo si definisce kèrigma che letteralmente significa "annuncio gridato", come lo farebbe un banditore. Il nostro unico grido è: «Gesù, il Cristo di Dio, è morto e risorto!». È questo il cardine della nostra fede. Paolo nella seconda lettura ci mostra le conseguenze di questo credo: vivere anche noi da risorti, cercando le cose del cielo. Morti con Gesù Cristo al peccato, grazie al Battesimo, siamo radicati nell'Eterno, nella vita divina che circonda tutta la nostra esistenza.

Did you know....?

The Easter lily (Lilium longiflorum), the trumpet-shaped white flowers, symbolize purity, innocence, hope, life, rebirth, a new beginning, and so they express the very essence of Easter. The Easter lily is often called "white-robed apostles of hope". Tradition has it that lilies grew in the garden of Gethsemane, in the spots where drops of blood sweat of the Lord fell to the ground during His prayer and distress, before being betrayed.

The glorious Feast of the Resurrection of Christ proclaims, forever, that life is greater than death. Jesus commanded us to preach this good news to all peoples in all places at all times. If you feel God is calling you to minister in His Church as a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org

Living the Gospel by evangelizing our faith in the greater world

Gia Lao Parish resides in the mountainous Diocese of Xuan Loc in Vietnam. Its parishioners, mostly poor, work on the hillside farms. The Pastoral Mission Fund, with the support of ShareLife, provided a one-time grant so the parish could acquire resources it could not otherwise provide. This includes bibles and hymnals, along with training for 60 catechists, who lead marriage preparation and catechism classes. With your support, Gia Lao Church is bringing faith to a community in the greater world.
