

Visiting the Sick

It is our tradition; we call priest to pray over the sick
James 5:14-16

(14) Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders (priest) of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. (15) The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. (16) Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.

Let us pray: Father of love, hear our prayer for the weak and sick. Amid mental and physical suffering, they may find consolation in your healing presence. Your Son bore our sorrows to show the power of human suffering and weakness. Grant your blessing upon them as they share with him his suffering for the salvation of the world. Sent forth your Spirit upon them so that they may experience your healing touch. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

IL segreto della santità sta nel riconoscere Dio come nostro Padre (Vangelo). Questa consapevolezza ci fa considerare ogni uomo come un fratello, perché figlio dello stesso Padre. Nasce da qui l'esigenza di amare gli altri come elementi-base della nostra stessa famiglia. Come fare? Se guardiamo l'altro non con gli occhi del mondo, ma con quelli di Dio, potremo aprirci al comandamento dell'amore. È questo che permette di arrivare ad amare perfino i nemici, perché in essi scorgiamo il riflesso di Cristo che si è incarnato per salvarci tutti.

Did You Know ...

The book of Leviticus, where today's first reading originates, is the third book of the Bible. Its name comes from the Greek "Leuitikos", meaning "relating to the Levites". The book contains the law and it addresses both priests and lay people. It is a set of instructions covering a wide range of topics, like the offering of sacrifices, the liturgical calendar, dietary and economic practices of the Israelites and many more. These instructions are aimed to show the children of Israel how to live as people called to be holy, as we read in today's first reading: "You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy".
