

Visiting the Sick

It is our tradition; we call priest to pray over the sick
James 5:14-16

(14) Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders (priest) of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. (15) The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. (16) Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.

Let us pray: Father of love, hear our prayer for the weak and sick. Amid mental and physical suffering, they may find consolation in your healing presence. Your Son bore our sorrows to show the power of human suffering and weakness. Grant your blessing upon them as they share with him his suffering for the salvation of the world. Sent forth your Spirit upon them so that they may experience your healing touch. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

LA liturgia di oggi ci invita a riflettere su alcune questioni fondamentali della vita di fede. Il Vangelo ci sollecita a chiederci se ci rassicura di più la fedeltà di Dio o la sicurezza del denaro e se crediamo per davvero che il Signore assiste coloro che danno la vita per la causa del Regno. Prima di esporci in un giudizio su di noi o sugli altri, Paolo ci ricorda che Cristo Signore conosce le intenzioni profonde del cuore dell'uomo (II Lettura). Solo il suo tenero amore può abitare l'intimità delle nostre anime.

Did You Know ...

The Church teaches that the morality of a human action depends on three factors: the object (the action itself), the intention (the goal or purpose of it) and the circumstances. The object may good or evil: Telling the truth is good, while cheating is evil. The intention may be good or evil: Giving alms to help is good. But it is evil to do so with the intention of manipulating someone. A good intention cannot turn an evil action into a good one: Lying to protect someone with good intention still leaves lying immoral. A bad intention can corrupt a good action: Giving alms to the poor with the intention to be praised for it is not moral.

Conscience Rights and Conscientious Objection in the Workplace: A Catholic Response to Euthanasia and Assisted Death - Thursday, March 9 – 7 to 8:30 p.m. Charbonnel Lounge, University of St. Michael's College 81 St. Mary St., Toronto

A seminar for nurses and all healthcare professionals hosted by Canadian Catholic Bioethics Institute. Healthcare professionals may increasingly face ethical situations at work in which, in conscience, they cannot participate. How does the healthcare professional proceed in such circumstances? Can the healthcare professional simultaneously maintain the regulatory body's standards of practice and uphold integrity of conscience? What interventions should be avoided to prevent participation on the basis of conscience?
