WELCOME TO OUR PARISH

BENVENUTI ALLA NOSTRA PARROCCHIA

Happy Father's Day

We pray to God, our Father.

For fathers, who have given us life and love, that we may show them love and affection today and all days.

For fathers who have lost a child through death, that they may find hope, and solace in your never-ending love.

For fathers who have died, that God may welcome them into that "joyous state that is forever in your presence."

For Fathers, who have lost a spouse to death ... or divorce and taken upon themselves, the responsibility of parenting their children alone. Strengthen them by your love that they may be and become the loving, caring persons they are meant to be.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen

FOR THE SICK

- Lenuta Alexe

Did you know that.....

St. Aloysius Gonzaga (feast day June 21) was born in a royal family. Against the will of his father, he gave up all earthly wealth and became a Jesuit.

While preparing for priesthood, a plague broke out in Rome, in 1591. He died, serving the sick in a hospital, at the age of 23. Before his death, he received the sacrament of the sick from St. Robert Bellarmine, his spiritual advisor - the patron saint of our St. Robert school.

On the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist (June 24) we celebrate the birth of St. John the Baptist, Jesus' forerunner.

The same Angel Gabriel who appeared to Mary, had also appeared to Zechariah and told him that he and his wife Elizabeth would have a child, whom they should name John. Since Elizabeth was beyond the age of child-bearing, Zechariah did not believe and he was made speechless until John's birth.

The feast day of a saint is his or her day of death, since that day is their birthday in Heaven. Jesus (Christmas), Mary (September 8) and John the Baptist (June 24) have in addition a feast day that celebrates their earthly birthday.

La confessione di Pietro, l'annuncio della passione di Gesù e l'invito a seguire il suo esempio costituiscono un'unità organica. Gesù è il Messia, ma non come quello di cui fantasticavano gli uomini. Egli segue il cammino tracciato da Dio, che è il cammino della croce.

Chiunque vuole essere con lui, deve seguirlo in questo cammino. Rispetto agli altri evangelisti, Luca introduce alcuni cambiamenti ed accenti caratteristici. Non cita il luogo della conversazione di Gesù con i discepoli, lega questa conversazione alla preghiera di Gesù e, soprattutto, rivolge a tutti l'invito ad imitare Cristo. È un invito importante, che non è rivolto solo agli eletti, ai santi e agli uomini pronti all'eroismo. Tutti i credenti sono discepoli di Cristo. Egli non li tratta come mercenari, ma come amici, vuole che lo accompagnino nel suo cammino e prendano parte alle sue sofferenze. Il suo destino deve essere anche il loro. Che essi portino ogni giorno la loro croce. Gesù non parla del martirio, che può capitare una sola volta, ma delle sofferenze che ognuno incontra nell'adempimento serio del proprio dovere e delle difficoltà quotidiane che devono essere sopportate pazientemente grazie all'amore per lui.

Have a Good Day!

Little Johnny & the Evils of Liquor

Little Johnny's chemistry teacher wanted to teach his class a lesson about the evils of liquor, so he set up an experiment that involved a glass of water, a glass of whiskey, and two worms.

"Now, class. Observe what happens to the two the worms," said the professor putting the first worm in the glass of water. The worm in the water moved about, twisting and seemingly unharmed.

He then dropped the second worm in the whiskey glass. It writhed in pain for a moment, then quickly sank to the bottom and died. "Now kids, what lesson can we derive from this experiment?" he asked.

Little Johnny raised his hand and wisely responded, "Drink whiskey and you won't get worms!"
