Did you know that.....

St. Irenaeus (feast day June 28) lived in the second century, in a period when the church was threatened by many false teachings. His extensive five-volume work, Adversus Haereses (Against Heresies) laid the foundations of Christian theology, making Christianity clearly distinct from gnosticism.

He was born in Asia Minor. Unlike many of his contemporaries, Irenaeus was raised in a Christian family, rather than converting as an adult.

On the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul (feast day June 29), we honor their martyrdom in Rome.

Both men were chosen by Christ: Peter was chosen to be the first among the Apostles. Paul, who had been a fierce enemy of Christianity, was chosen to become a proclaimer of the gospel, and became a tireless and loyal servant of Christ.

On the Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul new archbishops receive their pallium, the symbol of their authority, from the pope.

C'è qualcosa di radicale nella vocazione a seguire Gesù (è una caratteristica di ogni cristiano autentico) che ci sconvolge. Si potrebbe essere tentati di invocare una particolarità di modo di pensare, perfino di linguaggio, per addolcire o stemperare gli argomenti del Vangelo. Eppure abbiamo ogni interesse a prendere il Vangelo per ciò che è, ed approfittare della sua freschezza, del suo vigore. Seguire Cristo non è una cosa come un'altra, che si possa conciliare con esigenze parallele o contrarie. Chi intraprende questo cammino deve sapere fin dall'inizio che sarà il discepolo di un povero che non ha un luogo dove posare il capo, di un uomo che ha saputo non senza pericolo rompere certi legami, e che, una volta impegnatosi in una missione, non si è più guardato alle spalle.

Ci si abitua troppo facilmente a vedere i cristiani prendere e lasciare il messaggio evangelico; ora, questo disturba e deve disturbare il male che non cerca che di radicarsi in noi. Bisogna rinnovare il nostro impegno battesimale ricevendo per oggi le dure parole di Gesù, ed accettare coraggiosamente di essere dei discepoli che camminano sui suoi passi, sicuri di trovare, oltre il cammino pietroso, la felicità della vera vita.

Have a Good Day!

Adam

After God had created Adam he noticed that he looked very lonely. He decided to help.

He said, "Adam, I've decided to make you a woman. She'll love you, cook for you, be sweet to you, and understand you."

Adam said "Great! How much will she cost me?"

The answer came back, "An arm and a leg."

"Well," said Adam "what can I get for a rib?"
