

Traditional Jewish belief had it that the soul of a dead person somehow remains with the body for three days. After three days the soul departs finally from the body never to return, and that is when corruption sets in.. Is that why Jesus delayed coming to the funeral, to let the situation become "impossible" before acting on it?

To prove that it is never too late for God to revive and revitalize a person, a church or a nation. But first we must learn to cooperate with God.

How can we cooperate with God so as to experience God's resurrection power in our lives and in our world? Well, everyone knows the answer already: faith. No one expected him to do it, so expectant faith is not the emphasis here. Rather the emphasis in the story on how we cooperate with a miracle-working God is placed on practical obedience and doing God's will.

Many Christian individuals and communities today have fallen victim to the death of sin. Many are already in the tomb of hopelessness and decay, in the bondage of sinful habits and attitudes. Nothing short of a miracle can bring us back to life in Christ. Jesus is ready for the miracle. He himself said, "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly" (John 10:10). Are we ready to cooperate with him for the miracle? Are we ready to roll away the stone that stands between us and the light of Christ's face?

Are we ready to take the first step to come out of the place of death?

Io sono la resurrezione e la vita. Chi crede in me, anche se morisse, vivrà, e chiunque vive e crede in me, non morirà mai. Credi tu a ciò?

Quanto è difficile coniugare insieme fede e ragione, non scadere nel fideismo astratto né nel razionalismo ottuso!

Crediamo, ma non sappiamo tirare le conclusioni pratiche, quando le problematiche si impongono, quando la prova busca alla porta, quando dinanzi a noi c'è chi ha smarrito la strada e si dibatte nei rantoli della morte spirituale. Quanto spesso, proprio sulle labbra dei cristiani cogliamo espressioni che non riflettono la certezza di un Dio-Misericordia, di un Dio che non vuole la morte del peccatore, ma che si converta e viva, di un Dio che va in cerca della pecorella smarrita.

Come Anania all'annuncio che Saulo era stato mandato da lui perché gli restituisse la vista, siamo pronti a discutere con il Signore: "Ma sai chi è costui? Conosci il male che ha fatto? Il fetore delle sue azioni si è diffuso ovunque grazie ai mass-media...". E Gesù, come allora deve tornare a chiederci: "Ma credi sul serio che io sono la resurrezione e la vita?"

Oggi, nella mia pausa contemplativa, proverò a cogliere i miei atteggiamenti di fronte a chi ha sbagliato anche pesantemente: è la posizione di chi crede che Gesù è la resurrezione e la vita?
